"I strongly oppose any initiative that would defund the Warren Police Department."

- James R. Fouts

Dear Friends and Neighbors,

I am often asked about the impact of the novel coronavirus on Warren's economy. While COVID-19 has created unforeseen financial challenges for the city, residents can rest assured that the overall financial health of the City of Warren remains strong.

Under the direction of Warren City Controller Richard Fox, we are doing our best to keep spending down. We want to keep taxes down and continue to offer the same level of quality services that our residents have come to expect.

As you may know, we had a few peaceful protests in Warren back in June following the tragic death of George Floyd. I am very proud of our police department and our officers. I spoke with some protesters at a 'March for Justice' protest and we had a good conversation. I told them Warren police officers are here to serve and assist. I said they are protectors and are here to help the community.

I strongly oppose any initiative that would defund the Warren Police Department!

Warren Police Officers receive ongoing training in: de-escalation, cultural diversity, proper use of force techniques and proper decision-making and use of lethal force. We have an outstanding police department under the leadership of Warren Police Commissioner Bill Dwyer.

Police and Fire are, and always will be, a top priority in my administration. As long as I am mayor I will continue to serve and protect the citizens of Warren.

Another way the city is protecting residents is by offering free COVID-19 testing. The City of Warren has been teaming up with Wayne State University to offer periodical drive-thru testing at Warren City Hall. The response has been overwhelmingly positive and I plan to continue the testing on a semi-regular basis for Warren residents.

Plans for Warren's new downtown are moving forward. The new downtown is projected to generate over $200 million in new investment and will create more tax revenue and more jobs for the City of Warren.

The city received even more good news in July when it was named the Best Run City in Michigan by WalletHub. To determine the effectiveness of local leadership, WalletHub compared 150 of the largest U.S. cities based on their operating efficiency. Warren ranked 35 out of the top 150 best run cities - the top Michigan city on the list. Warren was judged on quality of services, financial stability, education, health, safety, and economy.

Warren is a great city - I think Warren is #1! It makes me proud to see it get the positive recognition that it deserves. Residents should be proud of their city and proud of the things we have accomplished together.

While we do not know how long the public health crisis will last, or how long it will take our state and federal government to recover, we can feel confident that the City of Warren is on the right path.

Sincerely,

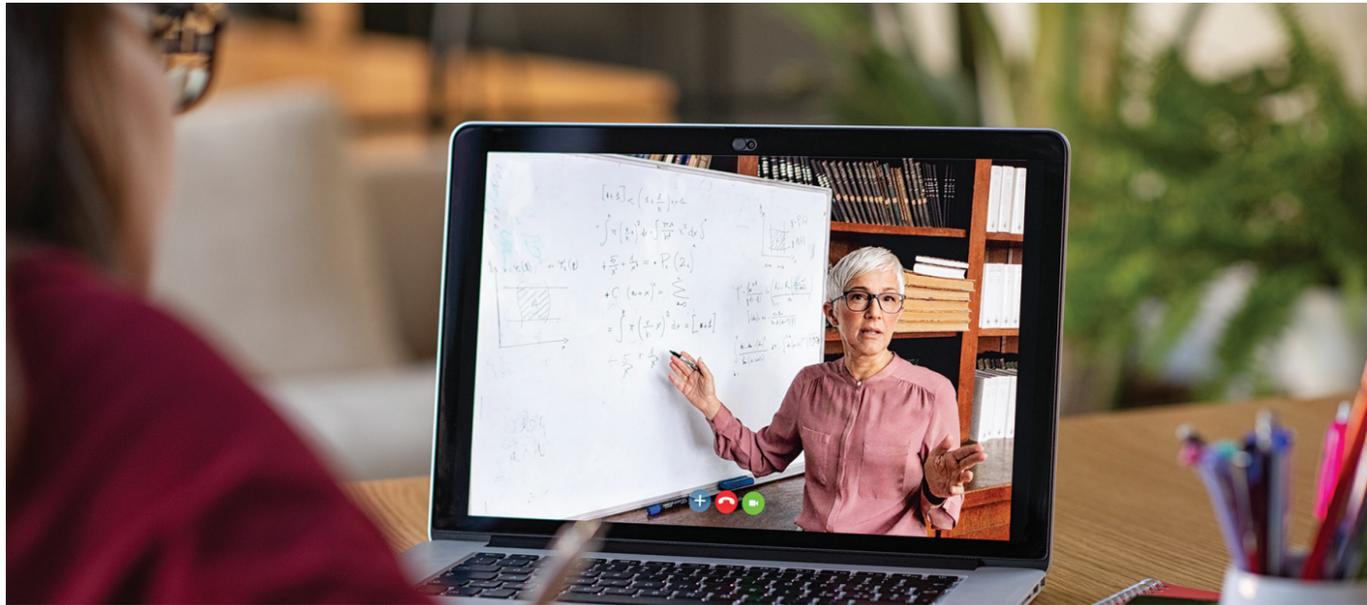

James R. Fouts

- A U.S. Citizen

- A resident of Michigan and the city or township where you are applying to vote

WHEN MAY I REGISTER TO VOTE?

You may register to vote at any time. Until the 15th day before the election, your activity of registering to vote will be sufficient for you to appear on the voter list for the election. Beginning on the 14th day and continuing to Election Day, new voters will need to go to the local clerk's office to show ID that confirms identity and residency in order to vote on Election Day. Secretary of State Branch Offices will supply an instructional sheet to anyone who registers to vote with them during the last 14 days.

MUST I REGISTER FOR EACH ELECTION?

NO. Registration is permanent as long as you continue to live at your same registered address. You are required to re-register to vote at each new address. You may register in-person at:

- Any Secretary of State branch office in Michigan
- Your city or township clerk's office
- Your county clerk's office
- Any Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) office (if a client).
- Michigan Works and military recruitment offices (for those enlisting in the service).
- Or, you may now register online at michigan.gov/vote. You only need to have a Michigan Driver's License or State ID.

If you have not registered to vote, you may visit your city or township clerk on Election Day to register and vote.

MAY I REGISTER TO VOTE BY MAIL?

YES. There is a voter registration form online at michigan.gov/voterregistration. These forms should be mailed to your local city or township clerk.

WHAT SHOULD I DO IF I HAVE MOVED WITHIN MY CITY OR TOWNSHIP OF RESIDENCE OR CHANGED MY NAME SINCE THE LAST ELECTION?

You should immediately notify the city or township clerk where you are registered. You may also change your address on Election Day. If you moved within your city or township, you may go to your old precinct to vote, then change your address there. If you moved to a different city or township, go to the new city or township clerk's office.

WHAT SHOULD I DO IF I MOVE TO ANOTHER CITY OR TOWNSHIP WITHIN THE STATE?

You must re-register with the clerk in your new city or township of residence, or at any Secretary of State branch office, or any of the other methods listed above.

- An election inspector will check your name against the list of registered voters on the Electronic Poll Book for the precinct.
- Vote the ballot issued to you
- Ballot is tabulated

Every county in the State of Michigan uses the Optical Scan method of voting. Warren uses a system from Election Systems & Software (ES & S). The optical scan method involves a paper ballot that is electronically tabulated in the precinct. To vote, small ovals are darkened near the candidate's name.

WHERE DO I VOTE?

If you do not know the location of your polling place, check with your city or township clerk. You can also go to the Michigan Voter Information Center at www.michigan.gov/vote.

HOW CAN I FIND OUT IF I'M REGISTERED TO VOTE?

MUST I VOTE THE ENTIRE BALLOT?

You are not required to vote the entire ballot. You may pick and choose the races or ballot questions for which you want to vote. Skipping sections of the ballot does not invalidate your ballot.

Polls are open from 7:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. on Election Day.

WHAT IF MY NAME DOES NOT APPEAR ON THE LIST OF REGISTERED VOTERS AT MY POLLING PLACE?

Walking - A Simple Activity with So Many Benefits

The City of Warren is home to 30 beautiful parks, 14 of which have winding, scenic walking paths. Most are nestled in quiet neighborhoods perfect for walkers, joggers and hikers alike.

While walking outdoors is a great way to breathe in the fresh air and connect with nature - it is also one of the simplest ways to get active and stay active. With each step you take, you travel further down the path to a healthier lifestyle. According to the American Heart Association (AHA), a walking regimen can reduce your blood pressure, lower your chances of heart disease and improve your cholesterol.

The AHA says most adults should try for at least 150 minutes (2.5 hours) a week of moderate intensity activity. That equates to about 30 minutes of brisk walking at least five days a week.

"Walking outdoors is one of the best ways I know to get exercise," says Warren Parks and Recreation Director Dino Turcato. "We are truly fortunate to have so many beautiful walking paths right here in Warren. It's a perk that not all cities have. You can walk at your own pace, enjoy the changing fall colors - and it's free. It doesn't get better than that!"

While staying physically active is one of the best ways to keep your mind and body healthy, there are some precautions all walkers should take in the era of COVID-19.

Please adhere to the following recommendations when visiting Warren's parks or walking on trails:

- Follow CDC guidance on personal hygiene prior to heading to trails — wash hands, carry hand sanitizer, do not use trails if you have symptoms, cover your mouth and nose when coughing or sneezing, etc.
- Observe at all times CDC minimum recommended physical distancing of six feet from other people. Keep it as you walk, bike or hike.
- Warn other trail users of your presence and as you pass to allow proper distance and step off trails to allow others to pass, keeping minimum recommended distances at all times. Signal your presence with your voice, bell or horn.

- On the chance that you may find public restrooms closed — be prepared before you leave and time outings so that you are not dependent on public restrooms.
- Bring water or drinks — public drinking fountains may be disabled and should not be used, even if operable.
- Bring a suitable trash bag. Leave no trash, take everything out to protect park workers.

Following these simple guidelines ensures your safety as well as the safety of fellow citizens.

Autumn is a beautiful time of year in Michigan. Don't let the season pass without exploring some of Warren's hidden walking paths. Why limit yourself to one when you can hike them all? The steps you take today can start you on the path to better health tomorrow!

FALL LAWN CARE & COMPOSTING

COMPOST SEASON RUNS APRIL 1 - DEC 1

Please Keep Leaves Out of the Gutter!

There is an ordinance in place preventing the raking of leaves into the gutter.

Warren street sweepers are not the proper equipment for leaf pick up, but do an adequate job on the natural falling leaf amounts. If they are piled up, they plug up the machines which result in costly repairs.

With over 400 miles of side streets the city does not have the manpower or the equipment to pick up all the leaves in Warren.

Homeowners are responsible for their own leaves.

Leaves are to be placed in marked compost cans or in paper bags. Sanitation will pick them up on regular trash pick up day.

Healthy Lawn Care

Using healthy lawn care practices is one step toward cleaner rivers and lakes — even if you don't have waterfront property.

Making sure you are watering responsibly and disposing of your yard waste correctly can do a lot to help keep our water clean.

A lot of sediment and algae problems we see in our waterways can be relieved by keeping lawn clippings out of street catch basins. Instead, sweep them back on your lawn. Clippings are mostly water and break down quickly to return valuable nutrients to the soil.

And don't forget the one-third rule when you mow - only cut off the top one-third of your grass blades. Three-inches or more left on grass blades promotes root growth and shades out weeds. Mowing more than a third of the total height of your grass can make it more susceptible to common turf problems.

 Source: Clinton River Watershed Council

Benefits of Mulching

Mulching is great for your lawn for many reasons. Mulching saves time, money and labor. There is no need for raking, bagging, or purchasing bags.

- Mulch Your Grass Clippings. Let short clippings fall back on to your lawn. The clippings are a good source of nitrogen so you can reduce your fertilizer use.
- Cut High: Leave at least 3 inches on the grass blade after cutting. Tall grass promotes root growth and shades out unwanted weeds.
- Soil Organic Matter should be at least 5%. Healthy soil consists of at least 5% organic matter. Organic matter provides a natural reservoir of nutrients and holds water. To assess your soil, test for basic nutrients and organic matter every one or two years.
- Rake Compost into the Lawn. Rake 1/2 inch of compost into an established lawn. Leave half of the grass blade exposed to sunlight and air. Compost adds microorganisms, nutrients, and organic matter, helping build soil fertility.
- Water Lawn to Minimize Stress. To have a green lawn in Michigan your lawn only needs 0.5 to 1.5 inches of water per week. Don't soak your lawn! Light frequent watering which reaches the grass roots is recommended.
- Use Earth Friendly Fertilizer. Earth friendly fertilizers meet state requirements for low or no phosphorus. Visit www.crw.org for a list of earth friendly fertilizers.
- Fertilize in Fall. Fertilizing in the Fall builds grass roots. Additional fertilizer before May is rarely needed. Do not spread fertilizer if the ground is frozen.
- Sweep Fertilizer from Paved Surfaces. Fertilizers left on sidewalks end up in storm drains, rivers, and lakes. Sweep extra pellets back onto your lawn.
- Mow Dry Leaves. In the Fall, be sure to mow dry leaves into your lawn. This will help add organic matter and nutrients to your soil.
- Avoid Weed-and-Feed Products. Combination fertilizer and weed control products often contain unnecessary herbicides. These herbicides may cause harm to animals, plants and insects beyond the intended pests.
- Practice IPM-Integrated Pest Management. Identify the weed or insect of concern and select the least toxic control option.

HOW TO PROPERLY HANDLE CONCRETE WASHOUT

Concrete washout: the washwater that is leftover after cement work projects

When it rains, water that drains from buildings, roads or other hard surfaces deposits directly into your local storm drains and begins a journey that ultimately ends in Lake St. Clair. It is critical that we eliminate pollution and other contaminants before they enter our streams, rivers and lakes. Clean water is vital not only to the quality of life in Macomb County, but can serve as a critical component of economic development in our communities.

What is Concrete Washout:

Concrete washout water is the washwater that is leftover after cement work is done and the equipment has been cleaned up with water. In order to minimize or eliminate the discharge of concrete waste materials into the storm drains, it is important to follow proper procedures and practices. This washwater contains toxic metals and has a pH value near 12, making it very caustic and corrosive. A neutral pH value is 7 and numbers greater than 7 show increasing alkalinity while lower numbers represent increasing acidity. The safe pH value range for freshwater is 6.5 to 9.

Equipment that is commonly washed out after cement work is done includes: the drum from the concrete truck, the chutes and hoppers, wheelbarrows and hand tools. A slurry of water and concrete washout water is created that must be disposed of properly so it does not enter the storm drain system which would contaminate the local waterways.

Best Management Objectives:

According to the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA 833-F-11-006), the best management practice objectives for concrete washout are:

1. When cleaning equipment, operators need to retain all concrete washwater and solids in approved containers with leak proof designs so the washwater does not reach storm drains or soil surfaces that could runoff into local waterways or ground water.
2. Collect 100% of concrete washwater and solids and recycle them to prevent materials from ending up in a landfill.

Making sure all of the concrete equipment is cleaned out properly prevents the concrete washout from leaking into nearby surfaces. This prevents washwater from entering the waterways which can cause pollution problems in surface waters and the soil.

Education:

There are many washout systems available for onsite or offsite clean up. Washwater should NEVER be disposed of in the storm drains or in the ground where it can filter into the groundwater. Organizations such as the National Ready Mixed Concrete Association (NRMCA) have developed courses that deal with real "hands-on" information for companies and workers to follow on rules and regulations for handling washwater.

Resources:

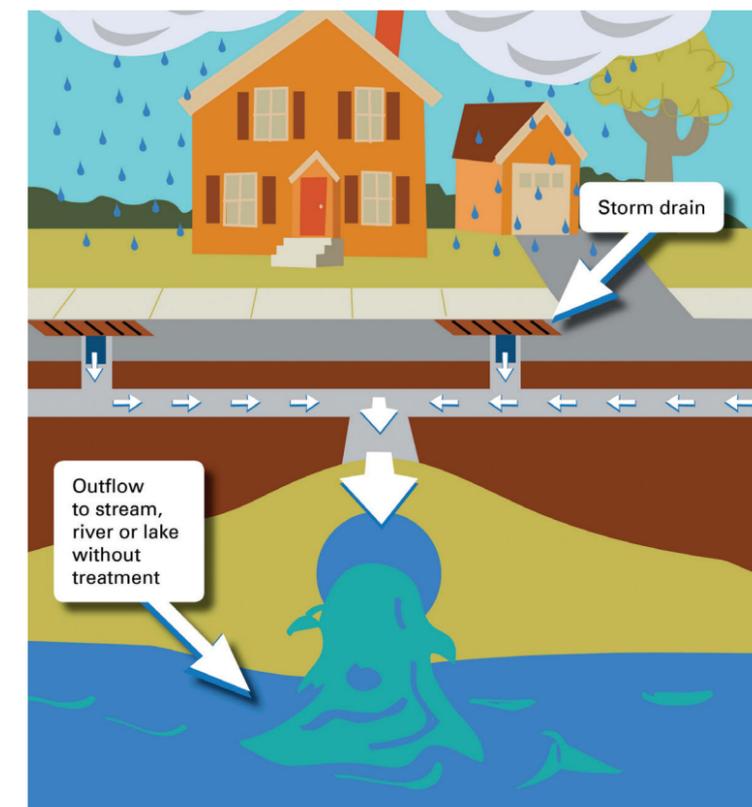

There are many options for concrete washout containers that can be used onsite or back at the ready mixed batch plants. Check with your local equipment retailers for materials and additional information. A good resource for detailed information on how to properly handle concrete washout which will minimize or eliminate the discharge of washwater into storm drains or waterways is available through the Environmental Protection Agency. It is a pdf titled "Stormwater

Best Management Practice Concrete Washout" and can be found online at: www.epa.gov/npdes/pubs/concretewashout.pdf

What can you do:

It is important to manage the waste water from concrete washout according to EPA guidelines. The equipment used for making and pouring concrete must be cleaned out using an approved container or at a concrete washout facility conveniently located for concrete trucks. Following proper guidelines prevents discharge into the local waterways through stormwater runoff that can enter the local storm drain system and through surface water that percolates into the soil and enters the ground water system. It is everyone's responsibility to keep our waterways clean in Macomb County. Working together on best management practices for clean water, we can improve the quality of life by having clean water to drink, recreate in and use in everyday life.

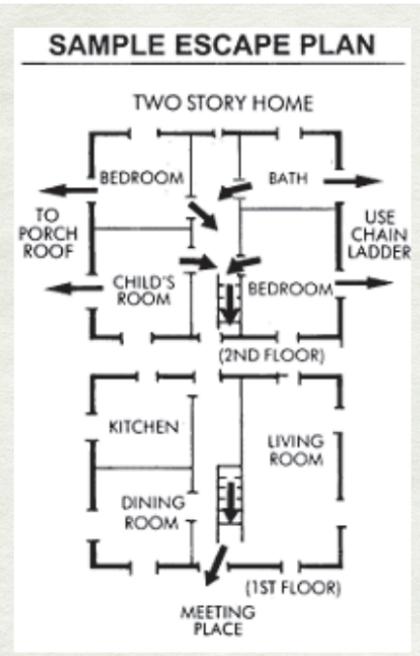

Every flower is a soul blossoming in nature.

What is stormwater?

Stormwater is water from rain or melting snow that doesn't soak into the ground but instead flows over roofs, pavement, bare soil and lawns into storm drains or directly into water bodies. As stormwater flows, it picks up animal waste, salt, pesticides, fertilizers, oil and grease, litter and other pollutants. Underground pipes carry stormwater to the nearest waterway, usually with little or no treatment. Whatever flows down a storm drain comes out in a nearby water body.

Plan Ahead! If a fire breaks out in your home, you may have only a few minutes to get out safely once the smoke alarm sounds.

October is Fire Prevention Month

Does your Family have an Escape Plan?

If your family does not have an escape plan in place, it's time to pull together everyone in your household and make one.

First, walk through your home and inspect all possible exits and escape routes. Households with children should consider drawing a floor plan of your home, marking two ways out of each room, including windows and doors. Also, mark the location of each smoke alarm.

When you walk through your plan, check to make sure the escape routes are clear and doors and windows can be opened easily. Items that block your path could keep you from escaping in the event of a fire.

Choose an outside meeting place (i.e. neighbor's house, a light post, mailbox, or stop sign) a safe distance from your home where everyone can meet after they've escaped. Make sure to mark the location of the meeting place on your escape plan.

Go outside to see if your street number is clearly visible from the road. If not, paint it on the curb or install house numbers to ensure that responding emergency personnel can find your home. If there are infants, older adults, or family members with mobility limitations, make sure that someone is assigned to assist them in the fire drill and in the event of an emergency. Assign a backup person too, in case the designee is not home during the emergency.

If windows or doors in your home have security bars, make sure that the bars have emergency release devices inside so that they can be opened immediately in an emergency. Emergency release devices won't compromise your security - but they will increase your chances of safely escaping a home fire.

Be fully prepared for a real fire. When a smoke alarm sounds, get out immediately. Once you're out, stay out! Under no circumstances should you ever go back into a burning building. If someone is missing, inform the fire department dispatcher when you call.

Practice your home fire escape plan twice a year, making the drill as realistic as possible. Also check your smoke detectors to ensure they are operational.

Fire Facts

Fire is FAST!

In less than 30 seconds a small flame can turn into a major fire. It only takes minutes for thick black smoke to fill a house or for it to be engulfed in flames.

Fire is HOT!

Heat is more threatening than flames. Room temperatures in a fire can be 100 degrees at floor level and rise to 600 degrees at eye level. Inhaling this super-hot air will scorch your lungs and melt clothes to your skin.

Fire is DARK!

Fire starts bright, but quickly produces black smoke and complete darkness.

Fire is DEADLY!

Smoke and toxic gases kill more people than flames do. Fire produces poisonous gases that make you disoriented and drowsy. Asphyxiation is the leading cause of fire deaths, exceeding burns by a 3-to-1 ratio.

Warren Symphony on Intermission Due to COVID-19 Unprecedented challenges for local musicians

By Louis Kerman

The Warren Symphony Orchestra's forthcoming 48th Season carries unprecedented challenges. On March 19th of this year, the Warren Symphony Society announced that it was canceling the scheduled April performance of "Bernstein & Williams Favorites: West Side Story to Star Wars," due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Then on April 24th, David W. Daniels, Conductor Emeritus who led the symphony from its inception in 1973 until his retirement in 2010, passed away from natural causes. He was 86.

In spite of the hardships following the statewide lockdown, according to Society Executive Director Jessica Trepton, it has been business as usual for Society members and directors. "We would usually be using these summer months to set the next season's repertoire and concert dates in cement, but we've got to be quite a bit more flexible and take a 'wait and see' approach as we learn what the future is going to look like for performance organizations. The board hasn't been able to meet in person, but the email chains are strong."

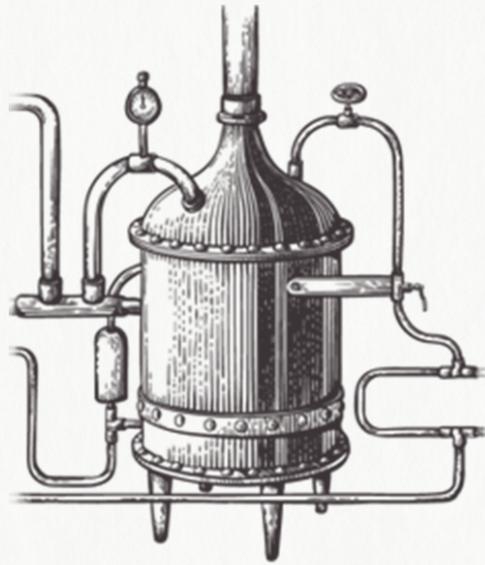

One of the board's early decisions involved its scheduled fundraising campaigns. As the season begins in the fall, the first round of fundraising efforts starts concurrently. A second campaign happens in late spring, at the season's end. The coronavirus changed that.

"The WSO did not send out requests for donations this spring; the board felt strongly that it was not appropriate to ask for donations in a time of upheaval when so many people in our community were losing their jobs and loved ones to the virus."

On June 8th, at the request of Governor Gretchen Whitmer, an entertainment event committee, convened by Pure Michigan, submitted a list of proposed guidelines in an effort to re-open concert venues to the public across the state. In consultation with public health professionals, as well as entertainment venue associations, recommendations include restrictions of attendance by venue and sanitation procedures, among other protocols. In light of this, Trepton remains optimistic for the next season. "The Macomb Center for the Performing Arts, where our subscription concerts are held, has been working diligently to create distanced seating charts and safety plans for bathrooms/lobby/backstage, etc. areas."

As for the next season's line-up, the aforementioned motion picture themed "Bernstein & Williams Favorites" is scheduled to return. Alongside more familiar work, the WSO plans on introducing a less recognized piece to its audience. "We also have a piece on loan from a living female composer, Linda Robbins Coleman, 'In Good King Charles's Golden Days,' that we plan to perform during the upcoming season." The symphonic overture was commissioned in 1989 to accompany the George Bernard Shaw play of the same name.

As public health officials continue to monitor COVID19, the hope of performing again on stage remains high. Still, as Trepton points out, practical safety concerns for the Symphony and its audience remain the top priority. "The limitations of how many musicians we may/may not be able to safely have on stage will have a great impact on music choices."

Warren Professional Firefighters Local 1383

March 29, 2020

"Huge shout out to Kuhnenn Brewing Co. for stopping into Warren Fire Department's Station 4 and donating a fresh batch of hand sanitizer. This stuff is liquid gold right now! We really appreciate your help and support! Thank you!!"

Owners of Local Brewery Make Hand Sanitizer

Find Value in Helping the Community

By Louis Kerman

Before the end of March, panic over the COVID-19 pandemic had prompted shoppers to bulk buy hand sanitizer, leaving a nationwide shortage in its wake. In response, the Tax and Trade Bureau (TTB) relaxed a restriction on the production of tax-free "denatured spirits." This opened opportunities for small-batch distilleries & breweries to begin filling the void, and produce alcohol-based sanitizer.

The owners of Kuhnenn Brewing Company (brothers Eric & Bret) were among those to receive the go-ahead. As Bret explains, "Hand sanitizer is not handled like booze, more like pharmaceuticals. We do have to process the alcohol using our copper distilling column to make the ethanol as strong as we can."

So far, Kuhnenn has met supply demands for nursing homes, hospitals, restaurants, Warren Fire Department, and PPE makers. It began as volunteer work, with a five-person crew working six days a week. And while it proved less profitable than selling beer, the Kuhnenn crew finds value in helping the community.

According to Bret, about "1500 growlers [of sanitizer] have been sold. We have donated about 5% of that. We have been getting demand for larger containers, so now we have a 5 gallon Headpak with a pouring spout available."

Recently, the TTB announced an extension of its authorizations on denatured spirits until the end of the year. As the fall and winter months approach, the Kuhnenn team remains committed to providing sanitizer as long as there is demand. "As more retailers and restaurants open we feel the demand will grow."

WELLNESS TIPS: IMPROVING YOUR MENTAL HEALTH

Did you know your mental health influences how you think, feel, and behave in daily life? It affects your ability to cope with stress, overcome challenges, build relationships, and recover from life's setbacks and hardships. Strong mental health isn't just the absence of mental health problems. Being mentally or emotionally healthy is much more than being free of depression, anxiety, or other psychological issues. Rather than the absence of mental illness, mental health refers to the presence of positive characteristics.

People who are mentally healthy have a sense of contentment, a zest for living and the ability to laugh and have fun. The ability to deal with stress and bounce back from adversity. A sense of meaning and purpose, in both their activities and their relationships.

Whether you're seeking to cope with a specific mental health problem, handle your emotions better, or simply to feel more positive and energetic, there are ways to boost your mental health. The following are three steps you can take to improve your mental health.

Don't skimp on sleep—it matters more than you think

If you lead a busy life, cutting back on sleep may seem like a smart move, but when it comes to your mental health, getting enough sleep is a necessity, not a luxury.

Skipping even a few hours here and there can take a toll on your mood, energy, mental sharpness, and ability to handle stress. Over the long-term, chronic sleep loss can wreak havoc on your health.

If anxiety or chronic worrying dominate your thoughts at night, wind down and calm the mind by taking a warm bath, reading by a soft light, listening to soothing music, or practicing a relaxation technique before bed.

To help set your body's internal clock and optimize the quality of your sleep, stick to a regular sleep-wake schedule, even on weekends. Make sure your bedroom is dark, cool, and quiet. Curtains, white noise machines, and fans can help.

Eat a brain-healthy diet to support strong mental health

Unless you've tried to change your diet in the past, you may not be aware how much of what you eat—and don't eat—affects the way you think and feel. An unhealthy diet can take a toll on your brain and mood, disrupt your sleep, sap your energy, and weaken your immune system. Conversely, switching to a wholesome diet, low in sugar and rich in healthy fats, can give you more energy, improve your sleep and mood, and help you to look and feel your best.

Foods that adversely affect mood:

- Caffeine

- Alcohol
- Trans fats or anything with "partially hydrogenated" oil
- Foods with high levels of chemical preservatives or hormones
- Sugary snacks
- Refined carbs (such as white rice or white flour)
- Fried food

Foods that boost mood:

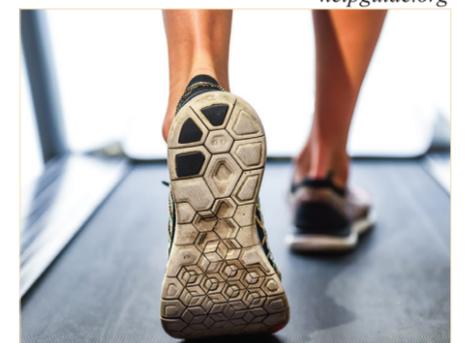

- Fatty fish rich in Omega-3s such as salmon, herring, tuna
- Nuts such as walnuts, almonds, cashews, peanuts
- Avocados
- Flaxseed
- Beans
- Leafy greens such as spinach, kale, brussels sprouts
- Fresh fruit such as blueberries

Staying active is as good for the brain as it is for the body

The mind and the body are intrinsically linked. Physical activity releases endorphins, powerful chemicals that lift your mood and provide added energy. Regular exercise or activity can have a major impact on mental and emotional health problems, relieve stress, improve memory, and help you to sleep better.

If you've made consistent efforts to improve your mental health and still aren't functioning optimally at home, work, or in your relationships, it may be time to seek professional help.

Warren's Class of 2020,

I want to offer my most heartfelt congratulations to each member of the graduating class of 2020 from all Warren high schools.

These last few months should have been a time of celebration for you and your friends for all you have accomplished, but instead you have been staying home to finish the school year to help stop the spread of the coronavirus.

By entering school at the time of the great recession and ending your school career during the coronavirus pandemic you've learned perseverance, courage, and dedication to our community.

I have no doubt that the class of 2020 will generate many incredible leaders who will accomplish great things in the future of science, medicine, innovation, business, and government. I wish you nothing but the best as you move on to wherever your path takes you in the future. Whether it is college or technical school, to the military or to work, whatever path you choose, I hope that you find fulfillment, happiness and a bright future.

From our entire City of Warren, I offer you congratulations on all you have achieved!

All the best,

James R. Fouts

Mayor Fouts,
I am unfortunately one of the many who's life was turned upside down by Thomas H Lee and partners destroying Art Van furniture. This was my career not just a job, and sir I appreciate that your speaking out about this atrocity and also that you are putting people on this case to try and help people. I don't know what the end result may be but I at least wanted to say thank you and let you know people really do appreciate what you are doing.

-Chris Tolbert

Dear Mayor Fouts,
I want to thank you and everyone in the Mayor's office right now for protecting me and my family and all the citizens of Warren during these trying times. I have never been so proud of any leader in my life. I feel protected living in Warren, because of how our public services are working for us and conducting themselves. We are all very lucky to have you all working so hard for us and for protecting our health and liberties at the same time. You all are truly special.

-Kimberly Servantes

Mayor Fouts,
Thank you for the invite to WJR yesterday. I enjoyed it and was glad to hear your views. I like and admire you for seeing things and saying things that are right, bringing up points that are both good and bad. But best of all you are also suggesting solutions to our issues. That is what makes you a good mayor for the city of Warren. You definitely have the interests of the people first. Whether you agree with it or not, the people still have the power; because you are in power.

-Merle Boniecki

Hi Mayor Fouts,
Just a note to please stay safe.
Thank you for all that you do.

-JoAnn Christian

Dear Mr. Mayor,
Thank you for allowing the landscapers to work. I am a disabled Veteran who has a lawn service because I am not able to do it, and my concern was rodents. I even emailed the Governor, but no response. Thanks and God Bless for coming to our rescue. Keep up the incredible job that you do!

-Desmond McClure

Hello Mayor Fouts,
Just wanted to say keep up the good work during this difficult time and I love the city of Warren. We will get through this Covid-19 storm together as a city united. Continue to encourage and support our first responders, they have done well and continue to do so I am sure.

-Paul Perry

Mayor Fouts,
You are the best mayor. Thank you for supporting the seniors, and organizing numerous social events. These events continue to keep us active, healthy and young at heart. You always make time to come to senior meetings. Your encouraging speeches mean a lot to us.

-Stella Gladysz

Mayor Fouts,
Thank you for speaking up for the 1,000's of us whom are left unemployed by the predatory dealings of TH Lee. I was with Art Van for 14 years, now I am an unemployed single father through no fault of my own. I'm hopeful that I will land something bigger and better but as of today I have no insurance and no job. I just applied for unemployment for the first time in my life. It's something, but it's a far cry from the living I earned while at Art Van. I do not want to ramble, but please, you have a voice that is helping. Please do not stop fighting for all of us and our families. We all deserved better than this.

-Jesse Murphy

Dear Mayor,
I have been an employee of the city for nine years, eight as a temporary and just one as a full time employee as an Engineering Specialist. I have dealt with Warren citizens for the whole time, especially with pavement repairs. 90% has been positive. I always respond "we love our mayor". You are doing a great job running the third largest city of Michigan. All the best.

-Dennis O'Leary

Hello Mayor Fouts,
We are so blessed to have you for our Mayor here in Warren! We called you a few weeks ago about removing a tree from the front of our house, and within a matter of weeks you arranged to have it taken care of. And for that we are so grateful. There is no doubt that you truly care about your citizens in Warren. I'll say it again, we are so blessed to have such a wonderful mayor! Thank you again and again.

-Jerry & Regina Falkowski

Hi Mayor Fouts,
Thank you for taking the time to address my concerns at Stilwell and Joseph Coach. I was happy to see your rules covered everything we had discussed and more. You are doing a wonderful job during this arduous time!
